

Symposium 2021

Gateway to excellence.

ONLINE SYMPOSIUM | 19-22 APRIL 2021

REGISTER NOW

Take advantage of our 50% member saving and group booking savings.

The Suicide Prevention Australia Symposium 2021 presents a unique opportunity to bring the brightest minds together with the latest thinking to promote excellence in suicide prevention. This online event provides a gateway to unite suicide prevention experts to showcase evidence-based solutions and robust discussion, focused on solutions for saving lives.

Program themes

- Stigma, mental ill-health and suicide
- Psychological and social risk factors
- Postvention and exposure to suicide
- Support and care for vulnerable population groups

CARLA NA NAGARA
New Zealand

RORY O'CONNOR
Scotland

DR SHARON MCDONNELL
England

SIOBHAN O'NEILL
Northern Ireland

Interested in partnership and exhibition opportunities?

Take a look at our prospectus on our website which details the benefits offered to each funding partner.

Find out more: <https://symposium2021.suicidepreventionaust.org>